KREPSTAT SON IT

Edward C. Jacobs, 40, was recovering Thursday at the General lempt to end his life late Wed-nesday in the office of Squire J. H., Helm, when he drained the contents of a two-ounce bottle of Phloroform, according to police.

Jacobs had just been bound over on a warrant secured by Ira Bul-liam, charging embezzlement of $75 and was awaiting transfer to the jail when he committed his act, police say. Dr. T. C. Graves worked with the man until midnight with the stomach pump and applied other medical treatment, but at an early hour, when still anconscious, he was rushed to the Seneral hospital for further treat-seen heid in Jackson, according to announcement made today by Secretary W. F. Barry.

Entries in the first race closed at nidnight Tuesday, but as these entries may be made by mail it will not be known for several days the exact num ber of horses that will appear on the rack. Present conditions indicate that the field will be well filled and that the races will be of a higher type this year than any that have been contested on the local ring. The 2:35 and 2:11 pace will open the races on Monday.
Sept. 13, beginning at 2 o'clock. Two norse races will be staged daily, except Saturday, the last day of the fair, when a sensational automobile race will be staged. Both professional and impateur drivers will compete in the motor races. Four automobiles and two motorcycles will take part in these races.

The fireworks have already arrived.

The fireworks have already arrived The fireworks have already arrived a realistic awe-inspiring portrayal of Stephon Decatur's victorious encounter with the Tripolitan pirate fleet will be resented each night, beginning Monday, together with other added features. This display cost the fair association $4,000 and will equal that shown at any fair, in the South, states Secretary Barry.

Airpianes will be maintained on the grounds during the entire week to give the adventure-seeking spectators a hrill among the clouds. Both passenger and "stunt" planes will be at the lair, driven by expert pilots. The planes will land inside of the race track in front of the large amphitheater.

Recommends Law Providing Impeachment of Officials Misappropriating Funds.

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 2 (By the Associated Press.)—Provisional President de la Huerta last night delivered his message to the twenty-ninth legislature which was installed Tuesday evening. The message treated briefly with the international relations of Mexico. It reviewed the recent movement which resulted in the downfall of the Carranza government and also the aims of the present administration.

New legislation suggested for enactment includes increasing the responsibility of the president and the ministry and the adding to the list of impeachable offenses misappropriation of national funds.

Restaurant Man Injured in Roof Collapse Has Even Chance to Recover--Women Out of Danger.

In a semiconscious condition, Spamos Kortatos, restauranteur, injured in the roof collapse at Simonds Manufacturing company, had even chances of recovery, deneral hospital attaches declared Thursday. Others injured in the wreck, which occurred at the company's headquarters, 235 Court avenue, late Wednesday, were out of danger.

The collapse was due to lightning hitting the building. City Building Inspector Dan C. Newton said Thursday after an investigation. Inspector Newton placed no credence in the story that several inches of water had accumulated on the roof during Wednesday's storm and caused the building to give way. He declared that the building was so constructed that six inches of water would have had no effect on the roof.

Kortatos was passing and was hurt when a portion of the stone coping crashed to the sidewalk. He is night manager for the Janssen restaurant and has been a resident of Memphis for two years. He lives at 246 Court avenue and was on his way home when nijured. A brother, Jean Kortatos, also is a restaurant man.

The man's injures consist of possible skull fracture, several scalp wounds, a sprained ankie, sprained knee and possible fracture of the right leg. There are no indications of internal injury, hospital attaches said, though Kartatos suffered a severe shaking up.

Mrs. Mattic Cofer, stenographer for the Simonds company, received a broken collarbone and minor lacerations. She is confined at Eaptist boxpital. Mrs. Cofer, who lives at 46 North Montgomery, was in the front office of the Simonds company when the roof tumbled in. Mss Bernice Harris also was in the office together with two painters, employes of the J. T. Williamson & Sohs Construction company. The Williamson contractors had just completed the building disk them were for the simonds company, but, as only the front portion of the building caved in none was hurt. A. N. Pollock, resident manager, declared he had ordered every available man in the force to the back rooms in an endeavor to straighten out supplies. The simond

RICHARDS CHECKS UP ON GARNISHMENT PLAN

Clerks in Jerome Richards' office still were busy Thursday checking the roster of the Chamber of Commerce, and comparing the names with the names on the 1919 poil tax indexed books. Mr. Richards has declared his intention of issuing garnishment proceedings against all members of the body who now are delinquent for 1918 poil taxes.

"I estimate has fully one-third of the membership of the Chamber of Commerce is delinquent on 1919 poil taxes, he said Thursday. "I am going to garnishee every member who owes his 1919 tax, just as soon as the comparison of the roster and my hooks is completed. Any member who is delinquent can avoid garnishment proceedings by coming here and paying up before the check is completed."

KIWANIANS' FEAST

Memphis Riwanians who met Wednesday at Gayoso hotel were treated to a talk by former Governor M. R. Fatterson who was principal speaker of the day. He spoke of the wonderful progress of the city, which has been revealed to him in his 40 years of residence he e. He said that in all of the struggles this city has engaged in it has been victorious and lead up to the fact that with the materilization of the Southwestern Presbyterian university the city would do more toward bettering itself than it could in any other way. One of the most salient statements in his talk was that "the difference between an educated and an uneducated man is the difference between life and death."

The matter of sending a delegation to the Tennessee and Kentucky Kitwanis convention next month was prought up, and it was definitely decided to do this. Attorney-General Sam Bates won the attendance prize, which was a ton of coal donated by Lawo of the Lawo Coal company. Music for the meeting was furnished by Mrs. Catherine Sherer Jones, soloist, and Mrs. Allida Elack, pianist.

BOYS' CAMP AT FAIR TO BE BIGGER THAN EVER

The boys' camp of the Y. M. C. A. at the Tri-State fair will be conducted on a more extensive scale this year than ever before, according to Dr. E. E. George, general secretary of the local association, who is now in correspondence with the county agents and leaders in boys' club work in Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee.

L. R. Forsdick will have charge of the camp this year. Last year about 60 boys attended, the maximum number that the camp equipment would accommodate. This year arrangements are being made for 75 boys.

Boys are admitted to the camp upon recommendation of the county agricultural agents and are usually elected from the boys' clubs or appointed as a reward for meritorious work in club activities.

The camp is conducted upon military lines under strict discipline. Tents are erected near the entrance of the fair-grounds. Last year a number of the boys entered exhibits at the fair and won a good share of the prizes. Through the Y. M. C. A. boys' camp an opportunity is given to a large number of boys from rural communities to attend the fair, and each year the camp becomes more popular.
